

HIRE THE BEST

Vocational Rehabilitation Professional

VRA Canada is the leading organization of vocational rehabilitation professionals and we are recognized as experts in the delivery of vocational and prevocational services.

As a demonstrated “Centre of Excellence,” VRA Canada members maintain the highest standards of professional practice. We are known for excellence, professionalism and our body of knowledge that transitions individuals with impaired work capacity to suitable and satisfying outcomes.

As a multi-disciplinary profession we continue to advance our knowledge through ongoing education and professional development within vocational rehabilitation and related disciplines. Our members have distinguished themselves by achieving accreditations such as:

- RRP (Registered Rehabilitation Professional)
- RVP (Registered Vocational Professional)
- RCSS (Registered Community Support Specialist)

These accreditations require applicants to successfully demonstrate their abilities through related education, workplace experience and ongoing continuous improvement through professional development.

We believe that excellence is promoted through collaboration and shared best practices. As the liaison between clients, employers, healthcare and other professionals, VRA Canada members navigate complicated medical, legal and legislative waters to achieve maximum outcome for our clients.

VRA Canada members believe that all persons should have the right and opportunity to participate in society, fully and with dignity. This includes establishing and maintaining a quality of life, independence and full inclusion in their community.

When you hire a VRA Canada member you are hiring the best.

Professional excellence in vocational rehabilitation.

